

MIDWEEK MISSIVE 03/27/19

Good morning on this beautiful SPRING morning!

Can you tell I am excited about having winter over? Scripture comes to mind..."Get behind me Satan!" Okay, so maybe winter isn't evil, but still, I am glad to welcome my friend Spring.

Which gets me thinking about all things Spring: green leaves on the trees, baseball, flowers coming up, baseball, sunsets after 7:00 at night, baseball, shirt sleeve weather, and, oh, did I mention baseball?

And of course, the Candleberry Chapel Spring Fair. We don't yet have a date, but here is where we are: Marcia PetitBon has agreed to chair this fair, with the caveat that she would like an assistant that would then become the chair for the fall fair. This makes perfect sense to me, and should probably be the model for moving forward. That way, more and more people will have experience with the role and how things work. And if 2 or 3 people would like to be the assistants, well, that would be fine. Then even more people would be ready to go!

So, if you are willing and able to be the Chair-in-Training, or Chair-Elect, or whatever you would like to call yourself, please contact me, Marcia or the chapel office to let us know. And as soon as a date is announced, watch for more information how on everyone can help!

And don't forget, Saturday April 6th brings us two opportunities to serve and participate.

First, if you have clothing that you would like donate to Savers AND help the chapel at the same time, bag them up and bring them to the chapel on Friday April 5th or to the chapel on Saturday April 6th from 8:00 a.m. till noon. They will be delivered to Savers at 1:00 and the chapel will be reimbursed for every pound of clothes we donate! So, we help Savers, the customer they serve and the chapel all at once!

Second, a group from the Candleberry Chapel will be serving lunch at Centenary United Methodist Church on Saturday April 6th. They will gather at Centenary UMC about 8:30 to prepare lunch, serve it and clean up. It is an opportunity not just to serve, but to meet folks in the community and let them know that Candleberry Chapel cares about all of God's people! Contact Ernie Boucher to get more information or to sign up.

Finally, did I mention that baseball starts tomorrow? So, if you need to get hold of me tomorrow afternoon, you might have to leave a message...because, well, baseball starts tomorrow!

Be peaceful,
Rev. Brad—
