

MIDWEEK MISSIVE 12/06/18

This week, I would like to turn over the Midweek Missive space to our Associate Pastor, Rev. Rebecca Driscoll.

As many of you know, I have been discerning what will come next for me in my ministerial journey.

Since ordination, I have been exploring many different paths. During this time I came across a national search for a unique internship opportunity with the General Secretary of the American Baptist Churches, USA. I applied, and as you know, God moves in mysterious ways. I have been offered and have accepted this nine month Leadership Internship position that begins January 7, 2019 at the national denominational headquarters of the American Baptist Churches, USA in Valley Forge, Pennsylvania. What a blessing it has been to be a part of the Candleberry Chapel community first as a member, then as a student pastor, and now as the associate minister.

Thank you for all your support, encouragement, and inspiration along the way! I will keep you all in my prayers!

Love, Rebecca

I know I am not alone in appreciating how important Rebecca is and has been to the Candleberry Chapel. Even as sad as I am at her departure, I know she has great things in front of her and celebrate this new opportunity on her faith journey.

Rebecca will be preaching the last weekend of December (Saturday December 29 and Sunday December 30) and plans are already underway for a reception in her honor following worship on Sunday December 30. She will be greatly missed!

Be peaceful,
Rev. Brad
